A DARING SNEAK THIEF.

Took an Overcoat From Burlington
Store and Wore It Off.

Burlington, Jan. 30.—One of the boldest attempts at sneak thieving made in Burlington in some time was the daring act committed by George McClellan, a young man, on Church street Saturday evening. He simply helped himself to one of the overcoats displayed outside the door of one of the Church street stores, and walked away. He was later arrested while wearing the coat.

McClellan seemed to have picked out an hour when more people are on Church street than any other during the week. It was only eight o'clock and a large crowd were passing up and down the street yet McClellan boldly walked up to the rack and took down a coat. It chanced that nobody happened to see it taken, but it was missed in a very short time, for McClellan had stolen hook and all. The police were notified and given a description of the coat. In about half an hour, McClellan was spotted on lower Church street. He was wearing the garment taken with an air of unconcern. He was taken into custody and the police found that he had the stolen overcoat on over his own overcoat. The hook he had taken was in his pocket. There seemed to be very little explanation for him to make and he did not attempt to make that. He was taken to jail.

A FAMOUS MAN COMING.

Rev. W. J. Dawson of London, Eng.,
Will Speak in Barre, Feb. 7.

The Rev. Wm. J. Dawson of London, Eng., whose addresses at the National Council of Congregational Churches at Des Moines, Iowa, last October produced so wonderful an impression and became the central figure of that great gathering; who later conducted a remarkable religious campaign in Brooklyn, N. Y., under the auspices of Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis and Plymouth church; and who, at the earnest solicitation of the leaders of the Congregational pulpit in America has returned to make a tour of the United States, is coming to Vermont. He will reach this state February 7 and 8, and Barre and Montpelier are the favored places. He will speak in Barre on the evening of Tuesday, Feb. 7. The next evening he will be in Montpelier. All the people of the state, of all denominations, are to be invited to attend. Arrangements are making for special trains and reduced fares. These should be days of moral and spiritual uplift of the best sort.

Dr. Dawson may be fairly called the leading exponent of the New Evangelism, a man of international influence and reputation. Don't miss this chance. Reserve Feb. 7 and 8.

A Grim Tragedy

is daily enacted, in thousands of homes, as Death claims in each one, another victim of consumption or pneumonia. But when coughs and colds are properly treated the tragedy is averted. F. G. Huntley of Oakland, Ind., writes: "My wife had the consumption, and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which cured her, and today she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. HEALTHY PLANTS

Require the Most Careful Attention as Well as Good Soil.

Did you ever see a rosebush which, despite the most beneficent environment of soil-of sunshine-and of atmosphere, seemed never to achieve a healthy growth?

A ton of manure will not help a plant that has a canker eating out its heart.

You must destroy the cause before you can remove the effect.

You cannot cure Dandruff and Baldness by rubbing on hair lotions, and rubbing in vaseline, etc.

You must look to the cause of the trouble—it's a germ at the roots of your hair which causes it to fall out.

Newbro's Herpicide destroys the germ, and healthy hair is the sure result.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

FAMOUS HORSE FAMILY.

Russian Claims to Have Found Valuable Arabians at Oyster Bay.

Baron Hertler, a Russian nobleman who has been staying at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York, told a New York Tribune reporter of an important discovery he made recently at Oyster Bay. "I have made a very important discovery since I came to America," said the baron at the hotel, "and the discovery is that of a family of Arabian horses from which the Darley Arabian came and which was supposed to be extinct. The family is not extinct, for there are representatives within a few miles of this city (Oyster Bay). The American people do not seem to appreciate the value of the Arabian horse nor understand him. He is the yeast by which all horseflesh is leavened. He is the basis of all horseflesh. He is the primitive horse, pure and not mongrelized. The European governments know this and have spent millions of dollars trying to procure Arabian horses for the development of their native types. The English people were very fortunate in securing the Darley Arabian, the parent of the English thoroughbred."

"This one horse has been worth untold millions to them. Had they at the same time procured Arab mares of the same type they would have been of incalculable value, but they could not do it. When it was too late they attempted to procure Arab mares of the same family and after twenty years' effort in the orient purchased two or three stallions and mares at an enormous expense, which they were not fortunate enough to keep, owing to the enterprise of an enthusiastic American, who became possessor of them. This man spent a fortune in developing this family and keeping the blood pure and has practically sacrificed his life to this noble task."

"He has kept the fact rather secret that they were the family from which came the Darley Arabian. Recently, on account of his age, he sold his stock to younger men, two artists, who agreed to go on in the philanthropic work of keeping this species alive. They have several stallions and several mares of this family, each of which, I unhesitatingly state, is worth a king's ransom. You may better appreciate this when I state that in my country I have heard the expression of willingness to give 500,000 rubles for one of two Arabian mares of this family. I am in hopes that our government will take advantage of the fact that these mares are in existence and will arrange with these two artists for the purchase of some of the progeny."

A Land of Poison.

It is stated by the Journal of the African society that for some years death by poison has been the subject of talk in the colony of Sierra Leone. No one, it would appear, dies from natural causes. Poisoning in one form or another is put down as the cause of death not only among the poor, but also among the rich.

A Satisfactory Poultry Food.

The best proof a merchant can offer of the popularity of his goods is the fact that people buy them. W. R. Spaulding of East Wallingford, Vt., says the line of Poultry Food he carries at present sells the best of any he ever had. Read his letter: "Page's Perfect Poultry Food" is the best seller I have ever had in a Poultry Food and gives general satisfaction."
